

Harbours database – general terms and conditions for users

This harbours database provides basic information about the ports and harbours located around the Moray Firth, from John O’Groats to Fraserburgh, including those owned, maintained and operated by Aberdeenshire, Moray and Highland Councils, private and Trust Ports and other organisations.

Disclaimer

The information provided in this Harbours database is intended as a guide to locations, facilities and services only, and is NOT to be relied upon for navigational purposes. Use of, and reliance on any of the data is at the user’s own risk.

Links are provided where available to the harbour’s own web site and any enquiries should be directed in the first instance to the relevant harbour authority.

The Moray Firth Partnership (MFP) will make every effort to ensure that the information on this database and its website is accurate and up-to-date. If errors are brought to our attention, we will try to correct them. However, we cannot accept responsibility for any loss, damage or inconvenience caused by reliance on inaccurate material contained in this Website, or on websites linked through it.

If you become aware of any information that is misleading or out of date, please advise the MFP by emailing info@morayfirth-partnership.org, or by telephone – 01463 725027.

Moray Firth Ports and Harbours database – registration terms and conditions

The information supplied on this form will be held and used by the Moray Firth Partnership for the purpose of creating and maintaining a PUBLIC, web-enabled database and making it available to Third Parties. This will be called the “Moray Firth Harbours Database”. The database will also be available to Apple iPhone users via an application, downloadable from the App Store.

The aim of the Moray Firth Harbours database is to provide general information about ports and harbours located around the Moray Firth, including those owned and /or maintained by Aberdeenshire, Moray and Highland Councils, and by private harbour authorities, Trust Ports and other organisations. It is not intended for use for navigational purposes, and a clear statement to that effect is included for users.

By providing information on all Moray Firth Ports and Harbours in one easily accessible location, we aim to:-

- a) increase awareness of visitors to the area and the services available
- b) provide links to the website or information source for each port or harbour, so that visitors can readily access full information and contact details
- c) promote the Moray Firth as a destination for visiting yachts and boats

The MORAY FIRTH PARTNERSHIP may contact you from time to time by post, phone, or email for the purpose of reviewing the information held, and aims to update the information at least once per annum.

The MORAY FIRTH PARTNERSHIP may make reference to, or create links to the publicly available information provided through this database on its own website and any associated websites. By submitting this form you warrant that the information supplied on this form is, to the best of your knowledge and belief, accurate and true, and may be disseminated in this way.

The MORAY FIRTH PARTNERSHIP will endeavour to ensure the accuracy of the information contained on the database but will rely on the information provided by the relevant harbour authority being correct.

If you supply photographs or any material protected as a copyright work for display in relation to the entry for your organisation, you warrant that the material is not knowingly misleading, does not infringe the rights of third parties and it is not defamatory to any person.

You agree that the MORAY FIRTH PARTNERSHIP shall not have any liability for any loss, damages, costs or expenses incurred as a result of providing information on the organisation, or as a result of any arrangement the organisation makes with a third party introduced by the MORAY FIRTH PARTNERSHIP.
